McCHESNEY.

At no time in recent years has any other horse filled the position now occupied by McChesney as the undisputed champion western racehorse. This is because the western view is that he is truly a great racehorse and because his racing has been confined to western tracks. Down east his claims to equine greatness are not accepted seriously, but if all goes well with "Big Mike," as he has been dubbed by some of his admirers, the close after the Saratoga meeting may see the western idea of his prowess forcibly impressed on the minds of eastern doubters. McChesney was a good two-year-old, a good three-year-old and is a good four-year-old. He is not a first-class racehorse, but he is a high-class racehorse. There is no first-class racehorse now running in the United States, but until it is proven to the contrary it must be held that McChesney is presumptively as good as any horse we now have in training. In some respects he has been an unlucky horse, but his brilliant achievements have been sufficient compensation.

McChesney started his two-year-old career as the property of Oots Brothers, who sold him to J. S. Ward, the latter selling him to S. C. Hildreth. As a two-year-old he ran in twenty-six races of which he won nine, was second in six, third in five and unplaced in six. His first essay was in a four and a half furlongs dash at Latonia, May 14, 1901, in which he ran third to Owenton and Andy Williams. Time, 56½. Then he ran in eight more races before he earned the winner's brackets, having in these races been second once and third twice. This did not speak of future greatness, but he was not an "early" horse and has not been since, being characteristically slow about rounding into his best form each year. It was not until July 23, that he scored his first success, when carrying 105 pounds he won at three-quarters over the Hawthorne track in 1:14½, beating nothing of much account except the subsequently good performer Aladdin. July 26, he again won over a slow track at seven furlongs in 1:34. At Harlem, August 7, he beat Lord Quex, Commissioner Forster, South Trimble and Talpa at three-quarters in 1:13½, a smart performance. Then he fell in to evil plight and lost in seven consecutive races of which he was second in four and third in two. By this time he had fully ripened and at Hawthorne, September 22, he beat Uledi, Barrack and six others, a mile, in 1:39½. This at once stamped McChesney an exceedingly fast colt, even though he only carried 80½ pounds, and is to this day his fastest record at a mile. September 28 he took up 108 pounds and conceding Lucien Appleby seven pounds beat him and five others, one of which was the flying filly Bessie Spahr, at a mile in 1:40½, a better performance than his preceding one. People were now fully aware of the fact that the big colt was of more than ordinary excellence.

At Harlem, October 2, McChesney set a sprinting record that will probably stand for some time. It was at six and a half furlongs which, with 105 pounds up, he won from Merriment, Aladdin, South Trimble, Hoodwink and Stuart Young in 1:18½, winning with great ease by three lengths. His next success was at Worth, October 17, when, with 113 pounds up he beat Lucien Appleby 98, and five others over a slow track at seven furlongs done in 1:31½. Then he beat a field of eight others at five and a half furlongs in 1:07, and wound up his two-year-old career by winning at seven furlongs in 1:27½ at Worth, October 26. In this race he carried 118 pounds. Lucien Appleby, carrying 105 was second and Miracle II. 96, was third. Sam Hildreth then bought the colt for the reported price of $10,000 and sent him into winter quarters with the well earned reputation of being the best two-year-old in the west.

Last year great things were expected of McChesney, and Hildreth felt confident of winning the American Derby with him, but he did not even start at the Washington Park meeting. Giving him the most careful and unhurried preparation, Hildreth sent him to the post at Harlem, June 18, for the hardening benefit of a race prior to the Derby and had to endure the misfortune of having him fall and injure himself badly because of a collision with Cruzados and Prowl. This caused the colt to be thrown out of training and in a spirit of disgust Hildreth sold him to P. J. Ryan, who afterwards sold him to Durnell & Herz. His first start after the accident was at Harlem, August 5, where he ran unplaced in a six furlongs dash over a slow track. But he was coming around and three days later beat Joe Frey and eight others at six and a half furlongs in 1:19½. In the Harlem Stakes, August 16, track slow, he ran third to John Bright and Aladdin in 1:57. Then he won a six furlongs dash at Hawthorne and at the same track, August 23, carrying 114 pounds, was beaten a half length by John Bright, 117, for the Northern Handicap, one and one-quarter miles in 2:06½. This was a great race and McChesney was giving so much weight, by the scale or actually, to everyone of the eleven other starters, that he was its real hero. August 28, he beat Joe Frey and some others at a mile in 1:39½, and then ran unplaced in the Twentieth Century Handicap, in which Scintillant II. smashed all records at one and three-sixteenths miles, by running the distance in 1:57½. McChesney had up 114 pounds, Scintillant II. 109.

At Harlem, September 6, McChesney took up 122 pounds in the Oak Park Handicap and ran one and one-eighth miles in 1:51½, defeating Bon Mot 106, Corrigan 105, and four others. From the standpoint of weight carried and time scored, this was perhaps his best performance, and oddly enough his putative eastern rival, Hermis, with the same weight up, ran in the same time last year. Both were great races, and in a measure indicate that the two colts were not far apart in excellence when at their best. At Harlem, October 6, McChesney won the Chicago Stakes, one mile, 113 pounds, 1:30½. At Worth, October 9, 126 pounds up, he won the Phoenix Handicap, time, 1:47½. October 11 he won at a mile and an eighth in 1:54½,

JUDGE HIMES' BIG PRIZE.

The Chicago Jockey Club's spring meeting opened auspiciously yesterday with a crowd estimated at between 10,000 and 12,000 people. The spacious grandstand and big betting amphitheatre were filled to repletion and the brick walk in front presented a big crowd when the horses went to the post in the various races. Apart from a light shower that fell at noon no rain fell during the remainder of the day. The track, owing to many car loads of sand having been placed on top of it and mixed with the loam and to being wet under the top crust, was very tiring and consequently the time was markedly slow.

The feature attraction of the day's sport was the Hawthorne Handicap, a sweepstakes for three-year-olds and upward at one and one-eighth miles with a guaranteed value of $10,000. Of the twenty-one scheduled to start, nine were withdrawn, but two added starters at the last moment. Ahola and Jordan, sent a field of fourteen to the post. Little Scout, probably owing to his good showing in the Powers Handicap at Worth, was regarded as best and made a 2½ to 1 favorite. Hardly a horse of the fourteen but what was generously backed, however. The winner turned up in Judge Himes, which won the Kentucky Derby recently. A wise few backed the Ellison colt, getting as good as 30 to 1.

After a delay of twelve minutes at the post, during which Jordan acted restive and stubborn, starter Holtman got the field off to a good start with the exception of Red Comyn, which propped just as the barrier went up. Ahola, closely attended by Favonius, showed the way to the first quarter, with the rest well bunched. Just before turning into the backstretch Favonius opened up a gap on Ahola of one and a half lengths, with Glen Water third and Huzzah fourth. Here, Little Scout was running along in eighth position with but little chance of getting through, while Hargis, Red Comyn and Jordan were already seen to be thoroughly beaten. When straightened into the backstretch the colors of Charles Ellison were seen to pass rapidly from seventh position so that by the time the first six furlongs post had been reached Judge Himes had moved up to Favonius' saddle girth. Here, Ahola still appeared to be running easily in third place with Glen Water fourth and Huzzah lapped, the last named having maintained a position well up from the very start. Just as the field made the far turn Judge Himes shot to the front with ridiculous ease and each stride appeared to carry him farther away from his nearest competitor. He turned into the final quarter about five lengths in the lead. It was about here that Ahola became well spent and fell away beaten. Huzzah and Glen Water soon followed suit, while the green, red and yellow colors of Gregor K. were seen to be moving up fast. Favonius fell back to sixth position along here, but rallied and moved up fast when straightened out for home. It was patent to everyone present, as Judge Himes moved along easily at the last eighth post, that he had the field well beaten and it was only a question of how far. In the closing strides he was eased up somewhat, but even at that won in hollow fashion by seven lengths from Favonius.

with 123 pounds up. October 15, 122 pounds each, he made a spectacle of Sombbrero at one and one-eighth miles, done in 1:55, whereat Green Morris was surprised and grieved exceedingly. Then, with 125 pounds up, he won the Columbia Handicap at Worth, doing the mile and a quarter in 2:05½, and giving much weight and a beating to Caliban, Lucien Appleby, Scintillant II. and other good horses. This was his last great success in the north and he was taken to New Orleans, where he was a great magnet last winter and practically invincible. With his career there and his defeat in the Montgomery Handicap this spring over the difficult and tiring Memphis track, readers of Daily Racing Form are familiar, as well as with the sale of the horse to E. E. Smathers. His three-year-old record was twenty starts, twelve wins, three times second, once third and four times unplaced.

FAKE HANDICAPPING ADVERTISEMENTS DON'T

pay guessing tipsters for advertised hot air which is virtually COPIED from the morning papers. It is intellectually IMPOSSIBLE for any honest handicapper to figure ACCURATELY more than one track a day. Touts and guessing tipsters HURT racing by DECEIVING the public (your guess is just as good as theirs). I figure ONLY Chicago tracks "SCIENTIFICALLY", am the ONLY handicapper who mails his selections the evening BEFORE the races (in plain envelope), reaching Chicago patrons by the first morning mail—St. Louis and many other cities in time to bet. ## Another Winning Week for the Infallible System (copyrighted) players and they are getting the money each week. The system is a big money maker and has won every week. We can prove it or will forfeit $500 to any one that can prove a loss any week so far this season. Have you won every week since the opening of the season at Benning? If you are a loser get your money back, which you can do by playing the INFALLIBLE SYSTEM (copyrighted). No system ever invented can show as good results on so small a capital as this system does. This wonderful system has received nothing but favorable comments from those who have operated it with great success. Do you know that losing is impossible, because the capital is surrounded with so many safeguards, and gives only an average of nine plays a week, and produces winners at remunerative odds? It guards against persons overbetting themselves, and the selections are not based on jockeys, weights, odds, track conditions, distances, favorites, etc., and no doubling, handicapping or "doping" is required. It can be operated with a small capital either at the track, pool room or with a handbook. We will pay $1.00 against every $500 that you put up that this system will end the fall Benning meeting a big winner. It will cost you nothing to investigate this system, and we refund your purchase money after 30 days' trial if a loss can be shown. Send for our "NEW BOOKLET" which is mailed free, and the system will be explained to you, and what it does, showing past results. Address which beat Little Scout four lengths for second place. Favonius stood a long stretch drive gamely and easily outstayed Gregor K. in the last eighth struggle. When Little Scout got clear sailing at the head of the stretch he closed up ground fast and came with a tardy rush at the end. Gregor K. was done for opposite the paddock gate. Huzzah ran a good race to the head of the stretch and then retired. Red Comyn and Jordan were never serious contenders. The stake was worth $7,635 to the winner.

JUDGE HIMES' BIG PRIZE.

The day's opener, a dash of five furlongs for three-year-olds and upward, proved to be an easy thing for Charley Ellison's good colt Skilful. Toah was thought to be the best and was made a 2 1/2 to 1 favorite, but he ran a dull race and was never a serious contender, the going being unfavorable to him. When the barrier went up Never Fret rushed into the lead and opened up a gap of two and one-half lengths on Joe Martin, with Skilful a lapped on third. Never Fret held his advantage until well into the homestretch, where he began to tire and Skilful had little trouble in passing into the lead, winning easily by four lengths from High Chancellor, which beat Joe Martin two and one-half lengths for second place. Never Fret fell away badly beaten when a furlong out. The others never gave their backers the slightest hopes at any part of the race.

Peter Paul, which ran some creditable races at Worth, was supposed to be much the best in the second race, a four and a half furlongs scramble for two-year-olds, but ran far below expectations, third being the best he could do. Manshak, as usual, dashed to the front at flagfall and opened up a gap of two and a half lengths on Proceeds, with Peter Paul third. Manshak retained his advantage up to the last eighth post, where he tired suddenly and fell away beaten. Here Proceeds moved into the lead, closely pressed a moment later by Sweetie, the two fighting it out sharply to the wire. Sweetie won by the shortest of noses, while Proceeds finished four lengths before Peter Paul for second place. The last named swung a little wide when turning for home, losing some ground, but tired palpably in the last sixteenth struggle under a poor ride and was a much distressed horse at the end. Apart from Manshak the others never had a look in.

The steeplechase over the short course proved an easy thing for Crest, the 6 to 5 favorite. She led all the way and, jumping cleanly throughout, won by two and a half lengths from Duke of York, which beat King Galong a neck for second place. Indian II. ran into the fence at the first jump and unseated his rider, while Hand Vice fell heavily over the last jump.

John McGurk had an easy time of it in the fifth race, a dash of one and one-sixteenth miles for four-year-olds and upward. He began slowly, but when straightened out down the backstretch passed horses rapidly so that by the time the first six furlongs had been run he had a commanding lead. He remained easily in front thereafter, winning as his rider pleased by five and a half lengths from Prince of Africa, which beat Ed Adack four for second place.

The concluding race of the day, a dash of six furlongs for three-year-olds and upward, resolved itself into a spirited last sixteenth struggle between Tom Maybin and Sardine, the former reaching the wire first by a head, Sardine finishing four lengths in front of Optional for second place.

Speculation was very heavy throughout the afternoon's sport, especially in the big Handicap.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jasper, Chicago. Aladdin beat McChesney at Harlem, June 10, 1902.

A. C. B. If you have stated your wager correctly it was a winner, as Rolling Boer ran second and Prince Webb won.

G. P., Chicago. Your wager on The Lady did not win. To have had the benefit of Nitrate's running you should have backed the entry.

W. Shane, Minong, Wis. Americano and Mr. Baldwin's other horses are now at Washington Park, this city.

K. K. S., Chicago. Your wager on The Lady lost.

Winner—B. c, by G. W. Johnson—Strathmaid (trained by J. Ross).

Went to post at 4:05. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Major Pelham ran as if he outclassed the field, carried his weight easily and won in a common canter. Old Stone ran out on the turns and Troxler broke a stirrup leather in trying to hold him in. Walnut Hill ran a sluggish race in the early part, but finished going well. The others were always outrun.

Winner—B. g, by Chorister—Zodiac (trained by E. Trotter).

Went to post at 4:32. At post 12 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second the same. Scorpio quickly took the lead, showed great speed and was beautifully rated in front, drew away at the stretch entry, but was tiring and won because he was given a strong finish. Louis Wagner improved suddenly, ran a good race and challenged strongly in the last eighth but Troxler outfinished Hall. Father Wentker displayed fine speed, was cut off at the three-eighths, then came resolutely in the stretch and finished going fast. Elastic did his best.

Winner—B. m, by Wadsworth—Wand (trained by J. Powers).

Went to post at 5:12. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Lunar was perfectly ridden and reserved to the stretch, where she quickly drew to the front and won easily up. Pathos was poorly ridden and had a rough trip, but showed speed and bumped his way through the field and might have won had Bridwell not allowed him to swerve in the stretch. Sardian ran in improved form. Pirateer, off badly, ran a winning race from where he got off. Varner showed immense improvement and will do to watch. The Messenger was prominent for six furlongs, but was cut off and taken back and will win presently.

Winner—B. c, by Troubadour—Brigerta (trained by R. F. Meyers).

Went to post at 3:34. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Bank Street was a contender throughout, came away as his rider pleased in the stretch run and had plenty in reserve at the end. Dubious began slowly as usual, but came fast at the end and fought it out with Far Rockaway, outgaming him in the final drive. Far Rockaway was probably short. He ran a good race, but tired somewhat at the end. Merriment closed a big gap and finished going fast. Gold Cure tired in the stretch run. Athelroy showed but little speed.

Scratched—38687 James F. 117.

Bank Street, show, 2 to 1. Dubious, show, 3 to 1. The entry, show, 3 to 5. Merriment, show, 3 to 5. Athelroy, show, 4 to 5.
